BOARD CANDIDATE INTERVIEWS

At this time the board will interview prospective candidates for the board seat vacated by Colleen Buck. Following interviews, the board will discuss the candidates and their qualifications as well as the way they might best serve the interests of the students, parents and district staff.

The Trustees will make their selection in an open meeting. The successful candidate will be sworn in at this time.

This appointment will fill a vacancy for a board seat that will be up for election at the November, 2024 general election.
